Congratulations on being elected as a Lay Delegate in MCC! You are holding a key leadership position, connecting the local church to the wider church. Your ministry is an important one, as you enable the members of your local church to take part in the democratic process of our denomination. This manual is a guide to help you carry out your ministry well and will hopefully answer many practical questions.

A. General Responsibilities

1. As the elected Lay Delegate, you are the official representative of your congregation at all levels. Lay Delegates have the responsibility to attend and to effectively represent the congregation at every General Conference. You should also participate in every Gathering of your Network. It is your responsibility to see that the information flow between the Fellowship, Network, and local congregation is both timely and accurate throughout your term of office.
   a. Lay Delegate: Represents the local church. Has both voice and vote at General Conference.
   b. Alternate / Assistant Lay Delegates are chosen to fulfill the responsibilities of Lay Delegates when they cannot attend required meetings.

2. The Universal Fellowship’s General Conference occurs every three years, generally in July. General Conference is the worldwide governing body for the church. Each Network is encouraged to hold a Gathering at least twice a year.

3. It is the responsibility of each local congregation to provide adequate funds for the Delegates to attend the General Conferences. These funds should include registration, room cost, travel, and food expenses. Whenever possible, delegates may collaborate with your local Board of Director’s about fundraising opportunities and/or scholarships to help supplement the church budget for lay delegate costs.

B. Specific Tasks

1. Lay Delegates serve as the communication link between the local congregation, the Network, and the Fellowship.
2 Flow of pertinent information between these bodies through the Lay Delegate is an important part of your job.

3 Remember, you may be the only link that most members have to the Network and/or Fellowship. It is your responsibility to make sure that you have been added to the Network, Conference and Fellowship newsletter e-mail distribution lists. Make sure your Network Leader has your email address as well. For a listing of Network Leaders visit: http://mccchurch.org/connectnow/networks/network-leadership/

C. Pre-conference

1 Pre-conference preparation is essential to a successful General Conference for both you and your congregation. This preparation includes:

   a. Review of all conference materials: UFMCC and local church bylaws and Standard Operating Procedures (SOP’s); conference reports and the business meeting pack, and any other conference materials received. These are available on the MCC website prior to the Conference - www.MCCchurch.org

   b. Congregational input: At regularly scheduled congregational meetings, or at a specially called meeting or forum, present the information concerning the conference to the congregation. If appropriate, take a voice vote to get a clear sense of the congregation’s opinion on the issues.

   c. Be aware of the status of your church’s payment of Fellowship tithes, and Board of Pension payments (USA only) and required reports for your church. If your church is behind on tithes you will not be permitted to vote at conference!

   d. Find out from a board member, Interim Pastoral Leader or your pastor the procedures concerning financial arrangements for attendance at conferences. You will specifically want to arrange for registration for conferences, travel and hotel reservations, and per diem for food. Check to see if you will need an exact accounting of all expenses, if the church prepays those expenses, etc.

   e. If your expenses are not in the church budget, suggest fund raising activities. Work to get conference and meeting expenses placed in the church budget.
f. Encourage attendance at the conference. You share in the responsibility of seeing to it that a large number of people from your church attend conferences.

g. General Conference and Network Gatherings can be a great blessing to all church members. If you can attract a large number of people from your church to each Network Gathering, and/or General Conference, not only will the attendees be blessed, but your church will be blessed as well!

h. It is your responsibility to get the word out about General Conference and Network Gatherings and urge people to register. You can see to it that the registration forms are available and that the conference or gathering is mentioned at worship services and other church events. See to it that articles about conference and gatherings are included in your church communications before they happen and report back on them afterwards.

i. You can even make arrangements for carpools, buses/vans, and hotel room sharing to curb the expense. The more the merrier!

j. It is your responsibility to become familiar with Robert’s Rules of Order before attending General Conference. (refer to Addendum 2 for Robert’s Rules of Order Quick Reference)

D. At the Conference

   a. HOUSES: Usually voting representatives are divided into two “houses” (Clergy and Lay) for voting purposes. Houses vote simultaneously on all issues that affect both groups, but the votes are announced separately for each. On occasion, a vote will be taken that affects only the Clergy or only the Lay and those times will be announced. Other than elections votes are usually taken by voting cards.
   b. VOICE AND VOTE: The official Lay Delegates from each church have both voice and vote. All delegates are expected to attend all forums and business meetings at each conference.

2. Workshops and Worship Services: These are interesting, diverse and inspiring. They offer great opportunities to experience different aspects of our Fellowship. It is recommended that delegates attend workshops and worship services when they are not in conflict with business forums and meetings.

3. New Issues: It is the responsibility of the Lay Delegate to accurately represent the local congregation’s view at the business meetings. If new or amended issues arise that have not been discussed by the congregation, it is the duty of the Lay Delegate to vote as you feel the congregation would have voted had they been able to discuss the issue as presented.

4. Expenses: Always keep a detailed record of your expenses for General Conference or Network Gathering, including receipts. Submit this information to your church treasurer. If you are paying the bill yourself, it is even more important to do this so that your board can hopefully begin to anticipate these expenses and budget accordingly. In some countries, you can deduct expenses paid personally from your taxes.

5. First Time Delegates: If you are attending a conference for the first time it is a good idea to attend the Lay Delegate orientation. This will help you connect with other Lay Delegates and get a better understanding of how the Business Meeting is conducted.

E. Post-Conference:

1. At the first congregational meeting following the conference, the Lay Delegate is to report to the congregation the highlights of the conference. This should include a report of all meetings attended, the outcome of major issues (e.g. elections, votes, bylaw changes etc.) as well as any workshops and worship services attended. Rationale on all voting by the delegate that was not consistent with the input from the congregation should be explained at this time.

2. A report should also be presented in writing to the local Board of Directors/Local Church Administrative Body and communicated to the congregation within 60 days following the conference.

3. Be sure to submit an expense report with receipts to your church treasurer.

4. The same type of report to the congregation and board should be given for Network Gatherings, as well, although there is no business meeting at these events.

The outline of a sample report could look like this:
CONFERENCE or NETWORK GATHERING ATTENDED

A. Business Meetings
   1. Election Results
   2. Structure changes
      a. Bylaws
   3. Resolutions
   4. Impact on local congregations

E. Personal Insights

F. Additional Suggested Responsibilities of a Lay Delegate:
   1. Save, read and organize all Network and Fellowship mailings throughout the year. Share this information with your congregation as it becomes available.
   2. The Lay Delegates should be in regular contact with the Network Leader, or their designated representative either by telephone or by email. It is your responsibility to see that the leadership has your current address, email address and day and evening telephone numbers.
   3. Attend open board and congregational meetings. You may be asked to assist in the preparation of bylaw changes or resolutions for presentation at conference.
   4. Attend church services and activities as much as possible. In order to best represent your congregation, you need to be in touch with the people.
   5. In addition to periodic reports, there are a number of important resources you might want to keep with your Network and Fellowship records. These include the latest directories, the Fellowship Bylaws, and your local church Bylaws and Standard Operating Procedures. As a Lay Delegate, you make policy when you exercise your vote at conference. You need to be able to refer to the resources that enumerate the policies of your church and the Fellowship.

6. Head Delegate: Should more than one Lay Delegate be mandated by membership numbers, normally the senior delegate shall be recognized as Head Delegate or shall be designated, by mutual agreement, among the delegates. Under these circumstances the Head Delegate shall:
   a. Coordinate in a timely fashion all efforts to inform the congregation of issues that will be dealt with at conferences (based upon pre-conference materials).
   b. Assure that all delegates and alternate / assistant delegates have access to Network and Fellowship pre and post-conference material and any other materials relevant to delegates.
   c. Keep the local Board of Directors/Church Administrative Body and Ministry leaders informed of any changes in information and materials from the Network and the Fellowship as it becomes available.

7. Aside from conferences and being an information source, you may have an even greater responsibility. That is to empower lay people in your local church. Help them to ascertain their spiritual gifts and to decide to which areas of ministry and service they are called. Help them to build programs and ministries in the local church. Find ways, working with your pastor, to develop the ministry skills of the laity.

Empowering people to do ministries to which God is calling them is an exciting and challenging job. The Lay Delegate is in a key position to assist in this wonderful task.

G. Alternate Lay Delegate

1. The Alternate position can provide an individual with the opportunity to begin learning about the workings of the local church, the Network and the Fellowship before running for the position of Lay Delegate.

1. Alternate Lay Delegates play an important role in the life of the church. They can help divide the workload both within the local church, Network Gathering and at General Conference, and are encouraged to work as a team with the Lay Delegate.
2. The position is not viewed as just a “substitute” delegate, only to be used when the Lay Delegate is not available. The Lay Delegate and the Alternate must work together to see that their job is done efficiently and effectively.

3. It is the responsibility of the Lay Delegate to ensure that the Alternate has copies of all conference materials and that the Alternate is fully trained to assume the duties of the Lay Delegate when required.

H. Responsibilities of the Congregation

1. Lay Delegates represent the congregation at the conference business meetings. It is, therefore, in the best interest of the congregation to insure that the most qualified person or persons be elected, supported and affirmed in their position as Lay Delegate. This should include financial support, including registration, transportation, meals and housing.

I. Summary

1. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask your Pastor or to contact your Network Leader. Contact other Lay Delegates to get their input. Remember the local congregation is not sending you to conferences for a vacation.

2. You have an important responsibility to represent the congregation to the Network and Fellowship and upon your return be able to represent the meetings, workshops, and worship services to your congregation. Communication is the key!

C ELECTIONS FOR THE MODERATOR AND/OR GOVERNING BOARD

1. Moderator and/or Governing Board Nominating Committee

   a Procedural Changes - The Moderator and/or Governing Board Nominating Committee may propose changes to the election process and procedures. Proposals for changes must be submitted to the Governing Board for approval no later than seventy-five (75) days prior to General Conference.

   b Upcoming Vacancy - The Moderator and/or Governing Board Nominating Committee will announce at each General Conference whether the term of the Governing Board is to expire at the following General Conference.

2. Election Procedures On Site via Electronic Voting Machine

   a Official Ballot - The Chair of the Governing Board Governance Committee will ensure that the Official Electronic Voting Machine is available on the day of election.
b. Ballot Tabulation Committee - The Chair of the Governing Board Governance Committee will appoint an E-Ballot Tabulation Committee which will include a voting judge prior to General Conference. The Governing Board Governance Committee will appoint a voting judge, prior to General Conference, who will lead the certification/verification team effort and report the results of the electronic ballot tabulation to the Moderator and/or Clerk of the General Conference.

c. Security of Official Electronic Voting Machines - Official Electronic Voting Machines will be securely checked-out and checked-in to each (physically-present) eligible voting delegate. During voting, security personnel will be circulating the room to ensure voting integrity and monitor the doors so that voting machines remain inside. Security will also monitor the area where tabulation is conducted.

d. Valid E-Ballots - Valid e-ballots are those ballots transmitted through the Official Electronic Voting Machine by voting delegates that (1) contain the specified number of votes or less or (2) are blank.

e. Invalid Ballots - Invalid e-ballots are those ballots submitted by anyone who is not a voting delegate.

f. E-Ballot Results - The voting judge/team will show the tally sheet to the Moderator and/or Clerk of the General Conference. The Clerk of the General Conference will then report all names with their ballot counts to the General Conference. Once the results have been announced, nominees who receive less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the total votes cast will automatically be eliminated. After the results have been announced, the Chair of the Moderator Nominating Committee and/or Chair of the Governing Board Nominating Committee will ask if any remaining nominee wishes to withdraw their name. Balloting will then continue until election has been achieved up to the rounds/run-off limits designated in this procedure manual.

g. Post-Election - When the e-ballots are tabulated, the ballots will be saved and stored electronically on a designated storage device and is delivered to the Clerk of the General Conference. The electronic are to be destroyed following the adjournment of General Conference.
